Do you like to capitalize your sentences?

So you don't update me two months and the first thing you do is complain about minor grammatical errors? I've never done that before so that's really out of character which is kind of ironic considering I'm a teacher if you were trying that whole "Answer a question by sarcastically asking a different question with the same answer" then that's just makes Cheer Bloom like a pretentious inkwabe twat TEN OUT TEN FOR EFFORT LOWB Sorry just hadn't had a good rant in a while ignore it
